I know, Jake thinks it is not a real person, just one of the same people who have been venting, with a different name. I have no way to contact this person since they did not leave a contact number.

Mr. Mike Rausch, How is Jacob Harmon still aloud around kids. Jacob openly admits to inflicting suicide on himself in front of kids, influencing our young adults to a direct correlation between suicide and adult stress. He walks away from the High School after being cleared through a thorough screening process and the Calvary Chapel system still continues to empower him. Jacob has been proven to be mentally unstable and you still empower him. Jacob has proven to be an alcoholic, and have an addiction to narcotics and you continue to empower him. Today he runs Team Thunder that is ran out of Calvary Chapel at 3232 West MacArthur Blvd, a business that Jacob has chosen ownership over, a business that Jacob has never filed taxes on, a business that Jacob has no business owning and after everything, including all the complaints over the past almost 20 years that have been ignored by Calvary Chapel and all the damage Jacob has caused Calvary Chapel, Calvary Chapel continues to stand behind this guy regardless if its safe or not for kids. In fact Calvary Chapel ignored his mental instabilities, his direct threats, and his disclosure to commit suicide to kids. When is enough, enough. He needs to be excommunicated from the church or the church needs to get that man help, either way he is a ticking time bomb and the church needs to separate him from influencing of children any further or my next email goes out to every news correspondence in the south-land. Its not fair to those kids or members of such a great church. The man needs help and Calvary Chapel continues to empower him instead of cutting their losses and getting him help away from the church.
